RE: Permission to Reprint

Dear Ms. Smith:

This is in reply to your request to reproduce and use as a handout section 45.2 of California Criminal Law Procedure and Practice which you authored. The handout is to be used for a program titled "Habeas Corpus: The Triumph of Hope Over Experience" that is being held by your office on January 20, 2007 for Assistant Federal Defenders and Attorneys appointed by the federal court to represent prisoners in federal habeas corpus cases. You are requesting permission to produce approximately 100 hard copy handouts.

CEB has no objections to your use of this material and permission is granted for the purpose stated above. However, at the bottom of the first page of the reproduced material, please state:

"This material is reproduced from the California Criminal Law Procedure and Practice, copyright 2006 by the Regents of the University of California. Reproduced with permission of Continuing Education of the Bar - California. (For information about CEB publications, telephone toll free 1-800-CEB-3444 or visit CEB.com)."

In compliance with this condition, permission is granted for the purpose stated in your request.

Sincerely,

Linda W. Russell
