

CEB Acquisition of Attorney's BriefCase

FAQs for inquiries from customers

Q. Will the current products/services I use be affected?

A. You will continue to access your Attorney's BriefCase products and services the same way you did before the acquisition was announced. The Year in Review and Family BootCamp MCLE courses will still take place annually, and The Week in Brief and monthly newsletters will continue to be published. Over time, the available products and services will expand for customers of both companies.

Q. Will I continue to access my Attorney's BriefCase content as usual?

A. Yes. The Attorney's BriefCase website will be maintained so current customers can continue to access the content there.

Q. What happens to www.mylegaleducationlog.com (MLEL.com) and my legal education records?

A. All of your records will be retained going forward.

Q. I attended the 2024 Year in Review webinar last month and have six credits to use for additional CLE. What happens to those credits?

A. Your credits are still valid. You will receive a communication from CEB inviting you to register for their CLE platform and you can use the credits there, or you will still be able to use them at atybriefcase.com.

Q. Are there any immediate changes to pricing, contracts, or service terms related to the acquisition?

A. No, there will be no changes as a result of the acquisition.

Q. Will my existing support channels or account team change?

A. No, there are currently no changes.

Q. Whom should I contact if I have additional questions or concerns?

A. You can continue to contact Attorney's Briefcase: info@atybriefcase.com; Phone: 510-836-2743; Fax: 510-465-7348

Q. Why was this acquisition made?

A. This acquisition joins together two of California's most trusted and authoritative providers of California legal research and continuing legal education. Attorney's BriefCase's attorney-curated family law coverage and unique bench-to-bar CLE collection is the perfect complement to CEB's library of attorney-authored practical guidance.

Q. What can I expect?

A. This acquisition is a huge plus for Attorney's BriefCase customers. By joining forces with CEB, Attorney's BriefCase gains additional resources to enhance the high-quality content and expert analysis that customers already rely on. Together, the two companies are now the largest provider of family law seminars in California, delivering even more of the rich, curated case law insights that Attorney's BriefCase is known for—backed by expanded editorial support and research capabilities. Customers can look forward to:

- Expanded family law resources: CEB will integrate Attorney's BriefCase curated case law coverage and CLE as part of its easy-to-access platform of California-focused legal research, practical guidance, news, and education in family law, among numerous other areas of practice.
- Our ongoing involvement: Garrett and Judge Juhas will continue to lead the Year in Review seminar, ensuring the same high-quality insights customers value. Additionally, the entire Attorney's BriefCase team, including our editorial staff, is joining CEB, bringing their expertise to enhance both content and integration. Our team will continue to play a key role in shaping the curriculum and delivery of the Year in Review and Family Law Bootcamp seminars, while also supporting the integration of ABC's trusted legal research into CEB's platform.
- More expert insights: CEB's unique and differentiated content offers strategic and practical perspectives from dozens of contributing judges and top attorneys in family law among over 1,400 contributors to the platform overall.

Q. How will this acquisition align with the company's mission and values?

A. CEB shares Attorney's Briefcase's passion for supporting the California legal market, and providing family law attorneys with the highest quality legal resources. The acquisition also complements Garrett's vision for the evolution of Attorney's BriefCase. Combined, the two companies will provide the kind of must-have resources that California family lawyers require for their practice.
